

HANDLE INSTALLATION

The MQ-D2H / D3H diaphragm pumps come with a handle that requires assembly. The following shows the suggested mounting location of the handle as well as the improper location, (see page 2 for improper location).

Technical Information

The following picture shows improper mounting. The handle was mounted on top of the pump base.

The handle should NOT be mounted at this location as it will lead to cracking the case.

